11. JURISDICTION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Governing Law. These Terms will be governed by and construed and enforced in accordance with the laws of British Virgin Islands, without regard to conflict of law rules or principles that would cause the application of the laws of any other jurisdiction. Any Dispute between the Parties arising out or relating to these Terms or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual Disputes or claims) that is not subject to arbitration shall be exclusively resolved by the courts of British Virgin Islands.

Binding Arbitration. Except for any disputes, claims, suits, actions, causes of action, demands or proceedings (collectively, "Disputes") in which either Party seeks injunctive or other equitable relief for the alleged unlawful use of intellectual property, including, without limitation, copyrights, trademarks, trade names, logos, trade secrets or patents, you and the Company (i) waive your and the Company's respective rights to have any and all Disputes arising from or related to these Terms resolved in a court, and (ii) waive your and the Company's respective rights to a jury trial. Instead, you and the Company will arbitrate Disputes through the binding arbitration (which is the referral of a Dispute to one or more persons charged with reviewing the Dispute and making a final and binding determination to resolve it instead of having the Dispute decided by a judge or jury in court). Any Dispute shall be referred to and finally resolved by arbitration under the Rules of the London Court of International Arbitration in force on the date on which the arbitration is commenced, which Rules are deemed to be incorporated by reference into these Terms. The seat of the arbitration shall be London, the United Kingdom. The language of the arbitration shall be English. Any award of the tribunal shall be final and binding from the day it is made. The tribunal shall consist of three arbitrators. Each party hereto shall nominate one arbitrator. In the event that either of the two parties hereto fails to nominate an arbitrator within 30 days after the commencement of the arbitration proceedings, then the London Court of International Arbitration shall nominate an arbitrator on behalf of the party or parties hereto which have failed to nominate an arbitrator. The third arbitrator, who shall be the presiding arbitrator, shall be nominated by the two party-nominated arbitrators within 30 days of the last of their appointments. The parties hereto agree to keep confidential all matters relating to the arbitration, including related court proceedings, to the greatest extent practicable.

No Class Arbitrations. Class Actions or Representative Actions. Any Dispute arising out of or related to these Terms is personal to you and the Company and will be resolved solely through individual arbitration and will not be brought as a class arbitration, class action or any other type of representative proceeding. There will be no class arbitration or arbitration in which an individual attempts to resolve a Dispute as a representative of another individual or group of individuals. Further, a Dispute cannot be brought as a class or other type of representative action, whether within or outside of arbitration, or on behalf of any other individual or group of individuals.

Notice: Informal Dispute Resolution. Each Party will notify the other Party in writing of any arbitrable or small claims Dispute within thirty (30) days of the date it arises, so that the Parties can attempt in good faith to resolve the Dispute informally. Notice to the Company shall be sent by e-mail to the Company at contact@auctus.fi. Notice to you shall be sent by email to the email address you provide to us as part of the Whitelisting process. Your notice must include (i) your name, postal address, email address and telephone number, (ii) a description in reasonable detail of the nature or basis of the Dispute, and (iii) the specific relief that you are seeking. If you and the Company cannot agree how to resolve the Dispute within thirty (30) days after the date notice is received by the applicable Party, then either you or the Company may, as appropriate and in accordance with this Section 12, commence an arbitration proceeding or, to the extent specifically provided for in the first paragraph of this Section 12, file a claim in court.

Authority of Arbitrator. The arbitrator will have (i) the exclusive authority and jurisdiction to make all procedural and substantive decisions regarding a Dispute, including the determination of whether a Dispute is arbitrable, and (ii) the authority to grant any remedy that would otherwise be available in court; provided, however, that the arbitrator does not have the authority to conduct a class arbitration or a representative action, which is prohibited by these Terms. The arbitrator may only conduct an individual arbitration and may not consolidate more than one individual's claims, preside over any type of class or representative proceeding or preside over any proceeding involving more than one individual.

In any case, without limiting the generality of the foregoing and to the maximum extent legally permissible, Auctus' and Auctus' representatives' total aggregate liability for all damages or losses whatsoever arising hereunder or in connection with your use or inability to use the Website and/or the content shall be limited to the amount actually paid by you, if any, to Auctus for use of the site or $1, whichever is greater. You will not, and hereby waive any right to, seek to recover any other damages, including consequential, lost profits, special, indirect or incidental damages from us and from Auctus' representatives, officers, employees, agents, contractors, partners, assignees.
